Peter Medhurst's work as singer, harpsichordist and lecturer takes him all over the world, and in the last few years he has toured Australia and New Zealand, as well as fulfilling engagements at home and on the Continent. Future events will take him to Berlin, Paris, Salzburg, The Hague and South Africa, as well closer to home in London. He trained as a singer at the Royal College of Music with Redvers Llewellyn and Edgar Evans, and went on to study at the Mozarteum, in Salzburg, with Erik Werba. He also studied the harpsichord with the late Ruth Dyson.

Tom Abbott graduated in Psychology and Art History at Carleton College, Minnesota, and studied at the Louvre School of Art History in Paris. 1987 he moved to Berlin leading tours in Germany, specialising, of course, in the German capital. While in Berlin, Tom commenced and completed his graduate studies in the history of art and architecture, specialising in the art of the Italian and German Baroque.

The Music & Art of Venice with Peter Medhurst & Thomas Abbott

8 days from £1,499 Departing 23rd January 2013

Day 1

We meet at Gatwick Airport for our direct scheduled British Airways flight to Venice. On arrival we are met by Thomas Abbott our tour manager, and transfer by boat to the centrally located 3* Hotel Ala in Venice, where we stay seven nights. A welcome dinner is included at a carefully selected restaurant close to our hotel this evening, and the remaining six nights are on bed and breakfast basis.

Day 2

After breakfast we have an introductory talk entitled 'Introduction to the world of Venice and its history' by Peter Medhurst. We then visit the Accademia Gallery with its wonderful collection of Venetian art from the 14th to 18th century including works by Titian, Carpaccio, Tintoretto and Veronese. We then visit the Ca' d'Oro – the House of Gold, one of the most beautiful Gothic palaces on the Grand Canal and home to an excellent art collection including works by Titian and Francesco Guardi.

Day 3

This morning, our introductory talk is entitled 'Vivaldi and the Ospedale'. Subject to availability we visit Ospedale della Pieta, a convent and music school for orphaned girls, where Vivaldi was a director in the early 18th century. We continue to the Ospedale San Lazzero dei Mendicanti, one of several churches in Venice that provided musical education for impoverished young girls. We then visit the Neo-Classical Chiesa di San Maurizio. Rebuilt twice during its history, the standing structure dates back to the early 19th century, and is a fine example of Neo-Classical architecture. We visit the Ca' Rezzonico this afternoon, a museum dedicated to 18th century Venice. Subject to authorisation, we enjoy an organ recital by Peter Medhurst in one of the churches visited today.

Day 4

Our after breakfast talk introduces us to Monteverdi and his connections with St Mark's. This morning we explore St Mark's Square, described by Napoleon as 'the finest drawing room in Europe'. Here we visit the Basilica of St Marks which was built in the 10th century to house the body of St Mark the Evangelist. This afternoon we visit Palazzo Ducale, founded in the 9th century and the official residence of each Venetian ruler.

Day 5

After breakfast we have an introductory talk entitled 'Island of San Michele and its musical connections'. Today we enjoy a full day private boat trip to the neighbouring islands just off Venice. We visit Murano, the island famous for its glass making. Then on to Burano, the most colourful of the islands with brightly coloured houses, such as the well known Casa Bepi, lining the waterways and easily recognisable from the tilting tower of its church. Our final stop, Torcello, is a complete contrast; barely inhabited, the central piazza and its ancient buildings are a haunting reminder of a bygone era. We also visit Isola di San Michele, Venice's cemetery where we see the graves of Diaghilev and Stravinsky.

Day (

Our morning introductory talk is entitled 'Music and Art in the 20th century'. We then visit the Peggy Guggenheim Collection in the Palazzo Venier dei Leoni on the Grand Canal. Home to the most important collection in Italy of European and American art of the first half of the 20th century, we see works from Picasso, Mondrian, Dali and Pollock. During the afternoon we take an included guided tour of the historical La Fenice Opera Theatre which dates back to 1789. This evening we enjoy a classical concert at the San Vidal Church, by the 'Interperti Veneziani' group.

Day 7

We travel by coach to Vicenza. Our guided tour on arrival concentrates on the architecture of Andrea Palladio whose 500th anniversary was celebrated in 2008. It begins with the domed and porticoed Villa Rotunda (exterior view only), the most famous of Palladio's buildings, and continues to the great Palladian city centre of Vicenza for a tour of a number of his palaces and civic buildings including the Teatro Olimpico, Europe's oldest surviving indoor theatre designed by Palladio in 1579, and the Basilica Palladiana.

Day 8

After some time at leisure in Venice, we transfer by boat to Venice Airport for our direct scheduled Britsih Airways flight back to Gatwick.

NB:- Please note we reserve the right to alter the above itinerary if required for operational reasons.

3. ALIERATIUMS AND LANGELLATIONS BY US Occasionally, we have to make changes to and correct errors in the brochure or booklets supplied and other details both before and after bookings have been confirmed and cancel confirmed bookings. Whilst we always endeavour to avoid changes and cancellations, we must reserve the right to do so. Most changes are minor. Occasionally, we have to make a significant change to your holiday. When we refer to a "significant change" in these Booking Conditions, we mean a change of outward departure time of more than 12 hours, a change of departure point to one which is significantly more inconvenient for you, a change of country of destination, a change of accommodation to that of a lower category for the whole or the majority of your holiday. If we have to make a significant change or cancel, we will tell you as soon as possible. In the unlikely event that your holiday is surcharged you will be notified in writing not less than 30 days before departure. For holidays with an air content, if baggage exceeds the free allowance, an excess will be charged by the airline. Any excess will only be carried subject to space availability on the aircraft. 13. SUPPLIERS

26. CONSUMER PROTECTION

The air holidays and flights in this brochure are ATOL protected, since we hold an Air Travel Organiser's Licence granted by the Civil Aviation Authority. Our ATOL number is ATOL 5605. In the unlikely event of our insolvency, the CAA will ensure that you are not stranded abroad and will arrange to refund any money you have paid for an advance booking. For further information, visit the ATOL website at www.atol.org.uk. Your non ATOL financial protection is covered by a separate trust account administered by independent chartered accountants.
